OFFICIAL A-LEAGUE 2020/21 SEASON GUIDE

A publication of the Australian Professional Leagues

Content, statistics and layout by Andrew Howe @AndyHowe_statto

All statistics as at 27 December 2020

The A-League – a truly diverse league

Players in the A-League 2020/21 season squads presented in this guide were born in 37 nations, represent 21 nationalities, and have played for 28 countries in international football.

Combined, there are 43 different nations represented by birthplace, nationality or country played for (based on nations currently recognised by FIFA) for current players.

There is a section on player diversity for players in all A-League seasons to date later in the Season Guide.

Additionally the players have a wider range of ancestries, reflecting an even wider array of birth nations and nationalities of parents and grandparents.

Player ancestry – a strong African presence in 2020/21

There are at least 25 players in the initial A-League 2020/21 season squads with African ancestry, either by being born in Africa, or with a parent born there:

This list excludes other players from youth, academy or NPL teams, and who therefore may be called up to play in the A-League team throughout the season.

* Birthplaces are based on current national boundaries.
Nationalities used here are not official, definitive or necessarily current in that they reflect the main country where the player was raised up until their teenage years.
Countries played for are based on published information available for each player.

FFA Cup

In December 2020 Football Federation Australia announced that the FFA Cup will return to the national football calendar in 2021 with some key adjustments intended to improve and enhance the excitement associated with Australia's largest annual club-based sporting competition.

FFA CUP 2021 – KEY FEATURES:

- FFA Cup Semi-Finals & Final earmarked to be on stand-alone weekends for the first time. Final to be played at neutral venue.
- FFA Cup Final Rounds will feature an open draw for the first time – generating more competitive tension and uncertainty.
- FFA Cup 2021 winner to be awarded a preliminary round slot representing Australia in the Asian Football Confederation (AFC) Champions League.*
- FFA Cup Final Rounds Slot Allocation for A-League clubs and Member Federations to remain unchanged.
- FFA Cup Final Rounds Play-Off matches between the bottom four placed A-League clubs from the A-League 2020/21 season will be played to determine the final two A-League teams to enter the Round of 32.
- Wollongong Wolves (NPL 2019 Champions) will be granted entry into the FFA Cup 2021 Final Rounds. Wollongong missed out in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

From the 2021 iteration of the FFA Cup onwards, the FFA Cup Final will be played at a neutral venue and the FFA Cup Semi-Finals and Final will be contested on stand-alone weekends to ensure that the competition's showpiece fixtures have the opportunity to establish a significant place on the national sporting calendar.

Additionally, for the first-time next year's FFA Cup winners will be granted one of Australia's preliminary round slots in the AFC Champions League, meaning clubs from all levels of the Australian football ecosystem can aspire to compete against Asia's best.*

The 2020 AFC Champions League was initially suspended after group stage games 4 March due to COVID-19 (three home-and-away games in each group had been played). The competition restarted September with all games played in Qatar.

[^] Group A games played by Al Wahda (UAE) were declared void after the team were unable to travel to Qatar, thence all games were canceled.

Before 1977 the strongest football clubs in Australia competed in state-based leagues. There were only limited opportunities for the country's best clubs to play against each other.

In 1975, some of the country's leading clubs signed an undertaking to commence a national football league. In 1977, the National Soccer League (NSL) kicked off with 14 clubs in the league's inaugural season.

The first match of the new competition took place on 2 April 1977, when Canberra City hosted West Adelaide at Manuka Oval. John Kosmina scored the NSL's first goal as West Adelaide went on to win 3-1.

Between the first and second seasons, Melbourne-based Mooroolbark was replaced by Newcastle KB United. Over the following 35 years a wide range of options and considerations were taken to introduce new and remove former national league clubs from the competition.

In 1980 the league first expanded, from 14 to 16 teams. Four years later the competition undertook its most radical transformation with a dual-conference system, based loosely on a northern and southern split of teams. In 1984 the league also implemented a finals system to determine the Champion team, after the first-past-the-post system had been used for the league's first seven seasons.

The national league reverted to a single-league set-up in 1987, and a one-off return to the Champion club being determined by the team that finished the ladder in first position. In 1988, and in every season since then, the finals system has been the undisputed method of deciding the Champion team. The first-placed team on the final ladder is honoured with the title Premiers.

In five of the eight 'first-past-the post' seasons (1978, 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1987) a post-season play-off series took place. However as these matches were not played to determine the Champion team, the records for these matches are considered separate to the national league records.

At the end of the 1989 season the league reverted from a winter- to summer-based competition.

In April 2004 the NSL closed down, and in 2005/06 the first A-League season took place.

The history and records for the A-League since 2005 can be considered as its own competition. However, as the A-League continues of the concept of the strongest clubs in Australia and (since 1999) New Zealand playing in a league format, with finals, records for the combined NSL and A-League since 1977 can be considered in terms of an Australian National League.

The A-League 2020/21 season is the 44th season of the Australian (men's) National League.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL LEAGUE – NATIONAL YOUTH LEAGUE HISTORY

From 1984 to 2004 the national youth league consisted of a northern and southern division, with the winners meeting in a national grand final to determine the Champion teams. From 2008/09 to 2014/15 there was a one-conference set-up, which reverted to two conferences in 2015. Grand finals also took place at the end of the 2008/09 and 2009/10 seasons, and since 2015/16.
