The FFA Cup is a national knockout competition run by Football Federation Australia (FFA) in conjunction with the State and Territory Member Federations.

A total of 737 clubs entered the FFA Cup 2019, a number that has significantly grown from the first edition of the FFA Cup in 2014, when 617 clubs entered.

The FFA Cup 2019 started in February with the Preliminary Rounds to determine the 21 clubs from the semi-professional and amateur tiers. These clubs joined ten of the Hyundai A-League clubs (Western United FC will not participate in this edition) and the reigning National Premier Leagues Champions (Campbelltown City SC) in the Final Rounds. The FFA Cup Final 2019 will be played on Wednesday 23 October with the host city to be determined by a live draw.

Each cup tie must be decided on the day, with extra time to decide results of matches drawn after 90 minutes, followed by penalties if required.

At least one Member Federation club is guaranteed to progress to the Semi Finals.

Previous winners of the FFA Cup are Adelaide United (2014 and 2018), Melbourne Victory (2015), Melbourne City FC (2016) and Sydney FC (2017).

Broadcast partners – FOX SPORTS

FOX SPORTS will again provide comprehensive coverage of the FFA Cup 2019 Final Rounds. The FFA Cup's official broadcaster will show one LIVE match per match night from the Round of 32 onwards, while providing coverage and updates, as well as live streams, of non-broadcast matches. See www.foxsports.com.au for broadcast and streaming details.

All matches will also be streamed on Kayo Sports (www.kayosports.com.au) and MyFootball Live App, Live Fast and Data Free for Telstra mobile customers.

Playing kit numbers in this document subject to change throughout the competition.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL CUP HISTORY

From 1962 to 1968, the leading state league teams played in Australia's first nation-wide knock-out cup – the Australia Cup.

In conjunction with each of the first 21 seasons of the National Soccer League (NSL) 1977 to 1996/97, a national knock-out cup competition was played by national league clubs and, in some seasons, non-national league clubs – the NSL Cup.

From 2005 to 2008 a pre-season cup competition took place, consisting of national league clubs only – the Pre Season Cup.

Since 2014 a national knock-out cup has continued featuring national league and member federation-based clubs – the FFA Cup.
