THE ISUZU UTE A-LEAGUE – A TRULY DIVERSE LEAGUE

The 315 players in the initial Isuzu UTE A-League Men 2022/23 season squads were born in 43 nations, raised in 28 countries, and have played for 36 national teams in international football, including age-restricted sides.

Combined, there are 51 different nations represented by birthplace, country raised or country played for in initial squads, based on nations currently recognised by FIFA.

Additionally, A-League players have a wider range of ancestries, reflecting an even wider array of birth nations and nationalities of parents and grandparents.

Player ancestry – a strong African presence in 2022/23

Excluding imports, there are at least 20 players in the initial Isuzu UTE A-League 2022/23 season squads with African ancestry, either by being born in Africa, or with a parent born there:

Kearyn Baccus (Macarthur FC)
Adisu Bayew (Western United FC)
Cyrus Dehmie (Brisbane Roar FC)
Ajak Deu (Western United FC)
Gbenga Folami (Melbourne Victory)
Jason Geria (Melbourne Victory)
Nestory Irankunda (Adelaide United)
Atem Dor Jok (Central Coast Mariners)
Garang Kuol (Central Coast Mariners)
Charles M'Mombwa (Macarthur FC)
Panashe Madanha (Adelaide United)
Pacifique Niyongabire (Perth Glory)
Alex Paulsen (Wellington Phoenix)
Storm Roux (Central Coast Mariners)
Ruon Tongyik (Western Sydney Wanderers FC)
Nikolai Topor-Stanley (Western United FC)
Al Hassan Toure (Macarthur FC)
Adama Traore (Western Sydney Wanderers FC)
William Wilson (Melbourne Victory)
Kusini Yengi (Western Sydney Wanderers FC)

This list excludes other players from clubs' youth, academy or NPL teams, and who therefore may be called up to play in the A-League team throughout the season.

Additionally, imports who have represented African nations Congo DR (Yeni Ngbakoto, Western Sydney Wanderers), Ghana (Paul Ayongo, Central Coast Mariners), Mali (Tongo Doumbia, Western United), Nigeria (Kelechi John, Central Coast Mariners) and Tunisia (Salim Khelifi, Perth Glory) also appear in the initial squads for the 2022/23 season.

* Countries born in based on current nations/boundaries;

Countries raised in are the main country where the player was raised up until their teenage years;

Countries played for are based on published information found for each player.

The table indicates there are 5 initial squad members either born, raised and/or who have represented Brazil, for example.

Club and league statistics on player diversity for all previous A-League Men seasons are also provided in the Season Guide.

Overseas countries represented by initial A-League Men 2022/23 squad players, based on country born in, raised in and played for*

Before 1977 the strongest football clubs in Australia competed in state-based leagues. There were only limited opportunities for the country's best clubs to play against each other.

In 1975, some of the country's leading clubs signed an undertaking to commence a national football league. In 1977, the National Soccer League (NSL) kicked off with 14 clubs in the league's inaugural season.

The first match of the new competition took place on 2 April 1977, when Canberra City hosted West Adelaide at Manuka Oval. John Kosmina scored the NSL's first goal as West Adelaide went on to win 3-1.

Between the first and second seasons, Melbourne-based Mooroolbark was replaced by Newcastle KB United. Over the following 35 years a wide range of options and considerations were taken to introduce new and remove former national league clubs from the competition.

In 1980 the league first expanded, from 14 to 16 teams. Four years later the competition undertook its most radical transformation with a dual-conference system, based loosely on a northern and southern split of teams. In 1984 the league also implemented a finals system to determine the Champion team, after the first-past-the-post system had been used for the league's first seven seasons.

The national league reverted to a single-league set-up in 1987, and a one-off return to the Champion club being determined by the team that finished the ladder in first position. In 1988, and in every season since then, the finals system has been the undisputed method of deciding the Champion team. The first-placed team on the final ladder is honoured with the title Premiers.

In five of the eight 'first-past-the post' seasons (1978, 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1987) a post-season play-off series took place. However as these matches were not played to determine the Champion team, the records for these matches are considered separate to the national league records.

At the end of the 1989 season the league reverted from a winter- to summer-based competition.

In April 2004 the NSL closed down, and in 2005/06 the first A-League season took place.

The history and records for the A-League Men since 2005 can be considered as its own competition. However, as the A-League Men continues the concept of the strongest men's teams in Australia and (since 1999) New Zealand playing in a league format, with finals, records for the combined NSL and A-League Men since 1977 can be considered in terms of an Australian Men's National League.

The A-League Men 2022/23 season is the 46th season of Australia's Men's National League.

Australian National Cup History

From 1962 to 1968, the leading state league teams played in Australia's first nation-wide knock-out cup – the Australia Cup.

From 1977 to 1996/97, in conjunction with each of the first 21 seasons of the National Soccer League (NSL), a national knock-out cup competition was played by national league clubs and, in some seasons, non-national league clubs – the NSL Cup.

From 2005 to 2008 a pre-season cup competition took place, consisting of national league clubs only – the Pre Season Cup.

Since 2014 a natonal knock-out cup has featured national league and member federation-based clubs – the Australia Cup.
