FOOTBALL AUSTRALIA ANNOUNCES REFEREEING UPDATES AND DEVELOPMENTS FOR THE 2025-26 SEASON

16 October 2025: Football Australia is pleased to announce a series of key developments in refereeing for the 2025-26 season, highlighting the ongoing investment in the growth, professionalism and wellbeing of match officials.

As part of its ongoing investment in the professionalisation of refereeing, Football Australia will expand the A-League Professional Referee Panel from four to thirteen officials. This newly structured panel will comprise six full-time referees supported by seven part-time referees, ensuring greater depth, consistency, and quality in officiating at the elite level.

In a landmark achievement, Casey Riebelt has been appointed as Australia's first full-time female referee. Her appointment reflects Football Australia's dedication to creating a diverse and inclusive pathway for all officials.

Further strengthening its support systems, Football Australia's refereeing department welcomes five new Match Official Developers focused on referee wellbeing and long-term development. Kelly Jones and Renae Coghill will lead initiatives in the female refereeing space while Chris Beath, David Walsh, and Luke Brennan will support development across the men's competitions.

These appointments strengthen the department's focus on supporting match officials both on and off the field, ensuring they continue to perform at the highest level.

Alongside these appointments, Football Australia will introduce several important law changes for the 2025-26 season in line with the latest IFAB updates. These changes include:

Dropped Ball: Adjusted procedures to ensure greater fairness and flow of play.

Double Touch at a Penalty Kick: Clarified enforcement when the kicker touches the ball twice.

Captains Only Approach: Reinforcing respect and communication by ensuring only team captains may approach the referee.

Goalkeepers' 8-Second Release: Clearer application of time limits for goalkeepers in possession.

These updates will support consistency and game management at all levels of the game.

In the A-League Men, for the first time, VARdict, an in-stadium system providing real-time updates on big screens during VAR checks, will be introduced which will give supporters a more transparent and engaging VAR experience.

Player diversity in the Isuzu UTE A-League 2025-26 season

Isuzu UTE A-League 2025-26 season players were born in, raised in, or have played for at least 54 countries, based on the 12 official senior squads as at the start of the season.

Aside from Australia and New Zealand, there are at least 100 squad players who were born or raised in, or who played for, 52 countries (see table). While just under half (23) of these nations are European, countries from all other confederations are represented, including 12 African nations and 10 countries from throughout the Americas.

The table shows that, for example, there are currently four players born in, raised in, or who have represented Brazil in an official international match, in senior or age-restricted games.

This listing includes many Australian and New Zealand residents born in these other countries, including several African-born players who have represented Australia and New Zealand in various age groups.

Additionally there are players with ancestry from several other countries through their parents and grandparents.

Player profiles in this guide include birthplace, country raised and country played for, for all 2025-26 squad members.

Season 2025-26 players continuing a trend of wide-ranging international diversity in the A-League Men

In the first 20 A-League Men seasons 2005-06 to 2024-25, players originally from, or who represented, 118 nations played in the league. This comprised players born in 96 different countries, players raised in 76 countries, and/or who played for 99 countries.

Aside from Australia and New Zealand:

- the most popular countries of birth for A-League Men players prior to the 2025-26 season are England (111 players born in England), Brazil (58 players), Spain (42 players), Netherlands (40 players) and Japan (29 players);
- the most popular countries raised in are also England (62 players raised in England in senior or age-restricted games), Brazil (57 players), Netherlands (42 players), Spain (41 players) and Japan (28 players);
- the most popular countries played for are England (26 players have played for England), Netherlands (21 players), Scotland (18 players), Japan (16) and Ireland (15).

Full listings of countries of birth, countries raised in, and countries represented, for all A-League Men players from 2005-06 to 2024-25, are presented on pages 348 to 350.

* Countries of birth are based on current FIFA nations, & boundaries;

Countries raised in are the main FIFA nation the player was raised, generally through to their late teenage years (not definitive);

Countries played for are based on published information for players, who have played for senior and/or age-restricted national teams.

Coaching experience

Adelaide United (A-League, state league and youth teams)
assistant and head roles 2010–2016

Melbourne City assistant roles 2016–2018

Various assistant and head coaching roles at Zwolle and Ajax (Netherlands), Eupen (Belgium), Hapoel Tel Aviv (Israel) and Adana Demirspor (Turkey), and the Greek senior national side, from 2018 to 2024

Career profile

Born 23 August 1974 in Melbourne, played for South Melbourne junior and youth teams.

Played for Australian clubs South Melbourne (1993–1996), Adelaide City (2002–2003) and Adelaide United (2003–2009), and Greek sides Iraklis (1996), Larissa (1996–2001) and Agios Mikolaos (2001).

Represented Australia at Under-23 (in 1995) and senior (2006) levels.

Appointed interim head coach at Adelaide United for 9 games in the 2012–13 A-League season following John Kosmina's departure, and at Melbourne City for 15 games in 2016–17 following John van't Schip's departure.

After six years coaching throughout Europe, initially with assistant roles under van't Schip, returned to Australia to coach Brisbane Roar following Ruben Zadkovic's departure in 2025.

MACARTHUR FC COACH

Mile Sterjovski

Coaching experience

Northbridge Bulls (head coach) NSW 2020–2023

Macarthur FC assistant 2020–2023, head coach January 2023–

Career profile

Born 27 May 1979 in Wollongong, played for Wollongong Olympic juniors.

Played out an 18-year national league career with Wollongong Wolves, Sydney United, Perth Glory and Central Coast Mariners (Australia), Lille (France), Basel (Switzerland), Genclerbirligi OFTAS (Turkey), Derby County (England) and Dalian Aerbin (China), from 1996 to 2014, in winger, midfield and striking roles.

Played for the Australian senior (2000–2010, 43 appearances), Under-23 and Under-20 teams, including three games at the 2006 FIFA World Cup.

After joining Macarthur FC part-way through the 2022-23 season, guided the team to 5th place on the 2023-24 ladder and an Australia Cup title in September 2024 with a 1-0 cup final win over Melbourne Victory in Melbourne.

Career profile

Born 22 April 1982 in Sydney, played for Sydney Olympic youth teams.

Youth and senior playing career at Sydney clubs Sydney United, Parramatta Power and Sydney Olympic, and stints at Mechelen (Belgium) and Crawley Town (England).

Coaching and development roles include AEK Academy in Greece, NSW Institute of Sport, Western Sydney Wanderers youth and senior sides, and Xanthi (Greece, 2021–2023) and Newcastle Jets (2021–2023) senior teams.

Joined Melbourne Victory coaching staff in mid-2023, initially under Tony Popovic.

Appointed to head coach at Melbourne Victory following Patrick Kisnorbo's departure early in the 2024-25 A-League season, took the Victory to the 2025 grand final after defeating Auckland FC in the semi final.

Career profile

Born 4 August 1985 in Sydney, spent 2002 at the Australian Institute of Sport.

Played out a 20-year national league career, with Northern Spirit, Sydney FC, Newcastle Jets, Melbourne Victory and Macarthur FC (Australia), Shanghai Shenhua (China), JEF United (Japan), Baniyas (United Arab Emirates), Al Ahli (Saudi Arabia), Hibernian (Scotland) and Southend United (England); won a Championship at Sydney FC (2005-06) and captained Melbourne Victory to a Premiership-Championship double in 2014-15.

Represented Australia at Under-20, Under-23 and senior levels, including 81 appearances for the Socceroos; played in two World Cups and captained Australia at the 2017 FIFA Confederations Cup.

Coaching career started with an assistant role at Macarthur FC in 2021, followed by a head coach stint at NSW side St George (2022), three seasons as assistant at Adelaide United (2022–2025) and an assistant role with the Malaysian national team in early 2025.

Appointed Newcastle Jets head coach in May 2025, coached the Jets to victory in the 2025 Australia Cup final in October (W3-1 v Heidelberg United).

WELLINGTON PHOENIX COACH

Giancarlo Italiano

Born 31 January 1983 in Sydney.

Initially moved from playing to coaching an amateur league team in Sydney.

Held junior coaching roles at several Sydney clubs before becoming head of football with NPL (state league-level) team Blacktown City in 2015, won NSW NPL Premiership and national NPL Finals title that year.

Appointed assistant with Sydney FC NPL and National Youth League teams in 2017, before being promoted to Sydney FC NPL head coach in 2018; coached alongside Graham Arnold, Steve Corica and Ufuk Talay.

Appointed to assistant roles at Wellington Phoenix in 2019, initially as an analyst.

Moved up to become permanent assistant coach for the 2020-21 season.

Head coach for two games (two wins) in March 2022 with Talay absent sick.

Appointed head coach at Wellington Phoenix in May 2023 following Talay's departure; guided Wellington to second place on the 2023-24 ladder and a narrow loss (in extra time) in the semi final – the team's best-ever season.

The background of the image is composed of several large, overlapping triangles in two colors: a light pink and a medium blue. The triangles are arranged in a way that creates a dynamic, geometric pattern. The text is centered within a large pink triangle that occupies the middle-right portion of the frame.

Australian Championship

Australia's first-ever national second tier - from any football code - finally has an identity, the Australian Championship. Kicking off in October 2025, the first Australian Championship features 16 teams blending eight Foundation Clubs with eight Member Federation NPL Clubs. This innovative format bridges state-based competitions with the Isuzu UTE A-League Men's pathway, redefining Australian football's domestic football ecosystem and creating new opportunities for players, clubs, and communities to shine.

2025 AUSTRALIAN CHAMPIONSHIP

Foundation Clubs: Avondale FC (VIC), Marconi Stallions FC (NSW), Preston Lions FC (VIC), Sydney United 58 FC (NSW), South Melbourne FC (VIC), Sydney Olympic FC (NSW), Wests Apia FC (NSW), Wollongong Wolves FC (NSW)

Member Federation Clubs (2025 NPL Premiers):* Bayswater City FC (WA), Broadmeadow Magic FC (NNSW), Heidelberg United FC (VIC = *2nd-placed team), Canberra Croatia FC (ACT), MetroStars FC (SA), Moreton City Excelsior FC (QLD), NWS Spirit FC (NSW), South Hobart FC (TAS)

AFC Champions League

The AFC Champions League Elite is Asia's premier club competition, pitting the top club sides from Asia's most competitive national competitions against one another for the honour of continental club Champions, and entry to the FIFA Club World Cup.

The first Asian Club Championship was played in 1967. For most of the next 25 years, Asian clubs competed against each other on a number of different fronts, namely the Asian Club Championship, Cup Winners' Cup and Super Cup. In 2002 the competitions were restructured, with the AFC Champions League established as the top tier competition. Another restructure in 2024 saw the creation of the top-tier AFC Champions League Elite, starting for the 2024-25 season.

The AFC Champions League Two is Asia's second-tier continental club competition, behind the AFC Champions League Elite.

The AFC Cup was the second-tier football tournament in Asia, launched in 2004 as a replacement for the Asian Cup Winners' Cup and the Asian Super Cup. Australian teams entered for the first time in 2023-24. With a restructure of AFC club competitions in 2024 the AFC Champions League Two was created as the new second-tier continental club tournament, starting in 2024-25.

The AFC considers the records and statistics from the AFC Cup transferred to the AFC Champions League Two.

Before 1977 the strongest football clubs in Australia competed in state-based leagues. There were only limited opportunities for the country's best clubs to play against each other.

In 1975, some of the country's leading clubs signed an undertaking to commence a national football league. In 1977, the National Soccer League (NSL) kicked off with 14 clubs in the league's inaugural season.

The first match of the new competition took place on 2 April 1977, when Canberra City hosted West Adelaide at Manuka Oval. John Kosmina scored the NSL's first goal as West Adelaide went on to win 3-1.

Between the first and second seasons, Melbourne-based Mooroolbark was replaced by Newcastle KB United. Over the following 35 years a wide range of options and considerations were taken to introduce and remove clubs to and from the national competition.

In 1980 the league first expanded, from 14 to 16 teams. Four years later the competition undertook its most radical transformation with a dual-conference system, based loosely on a northern and southern split of teams. In 1984 the league also implemented a finals system to determine the Champion team, after the first-past-the-post system had been used for the league's first seven seasons.

The national league reverted to a single-league set-up in 1987, and a one-off return to the Champion club being determined by the team that finished on top of the final ladder. In 1988, and in every season since then, the finals system has been the undisputed method of deciding the Champion team. The first-placed team on the final ladder is honoured with the title Premiers.

In five of the eight 'first-past-the post' seasons (1978, 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1987) a post-season play-off series took place. However as these matches were not played to determine the Champion team, the records for these matches are considered separate to the national league records.

At the end of the 1989 season the league reverted from a winter- to summer-based competition.

In April 2004 the NSL closed down, and in 2005-06 the first A-League season took place, with mostly new teams.

The history and records for the A-League Men since 2005 can be considered as its own competition. However, as the A-League Men continues the concept of the strongest men's teams in Australia and (since 1999) New Zealand playing in a league format, with finals, records for the combined NSL and A-League Men can be also considered in terms of a continuous Australian Men's National League since 1977.

The A-League Men 2025-26 season is therefore the 49th season of the Australian Men's National League.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL CUP HISTORY

From 1962 to 1968, the leading state league teams played in Australia's first nation-wide knock-out cup – the Australia Cup.

From 1977 to 1996-97, in conjunction with each of the first 21 seasons of the National Soccer League (NSL), a national knock-out cup competition was played by NSL clubs and, in some seasons, non-national league clubs – the NSL Cup.

From 2005 to 2008 a pre-season cup competition took place, consisting of A-League clubs only – the Pre Season Cup.

Since 2014 a national knock-out cup has featured A-League and member federation-based clubs – the Australia Cup.

From 1984 to 2004, and 2008-09 to 2019-20, there was a national youth league season coinciding with each senior national league season.

From 1984 to 2004 the national youth league consisted of a northern and southern division, with the winners meeting in a national grand final to determine the Champion team. From 2008-09 to 2014-15 there was a one-conference set-up, which reverted to two conferences in 2015. Grand finals also took place at the end of the 2008-09 and 2009-10 seasons, and from 2015-16 to 2019-20, to determine the Champion team.
